

Join the Society of Bakery Women Today!!

If you're a woman working in the baking industry, you need to join the Society of Bakery Women (SBW)! SBW was established in 1998 to create a network for women in the baking industry and provide opportunities to gather and share their strategies and resources and to help advance the position of women in the baking industry. The SBW gets together at least once a year for a networking dinner that takes place in conjunction with the American Society of Baking's Annual Conference. If you would like to join this prestigious group of industry colleagues, SBW President Theresa Cogswell, BakerCogs, asks that you fill out the form below.
